

Q1.Does Real estate earn as much revenue as every other industry?

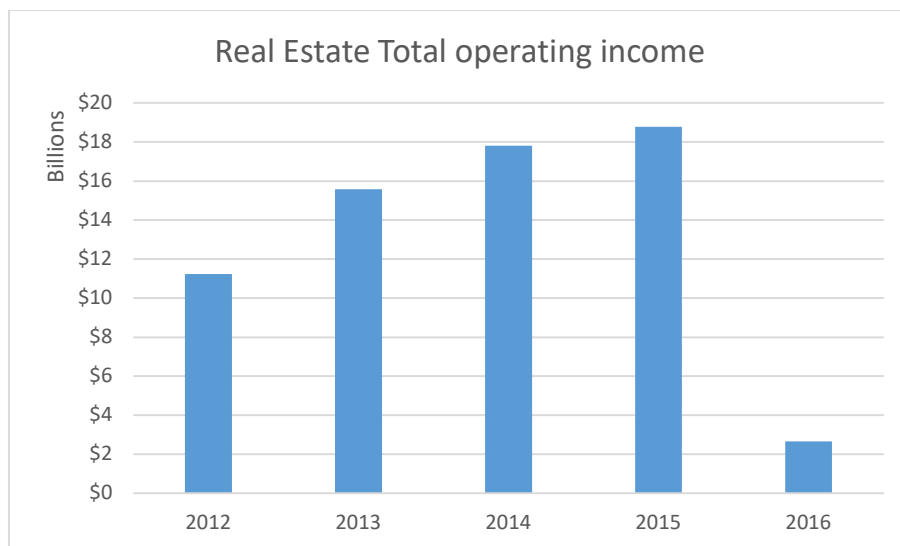

The above histogram shows that the real estate generate the more than 40% alone revenue as compared to all other companies.

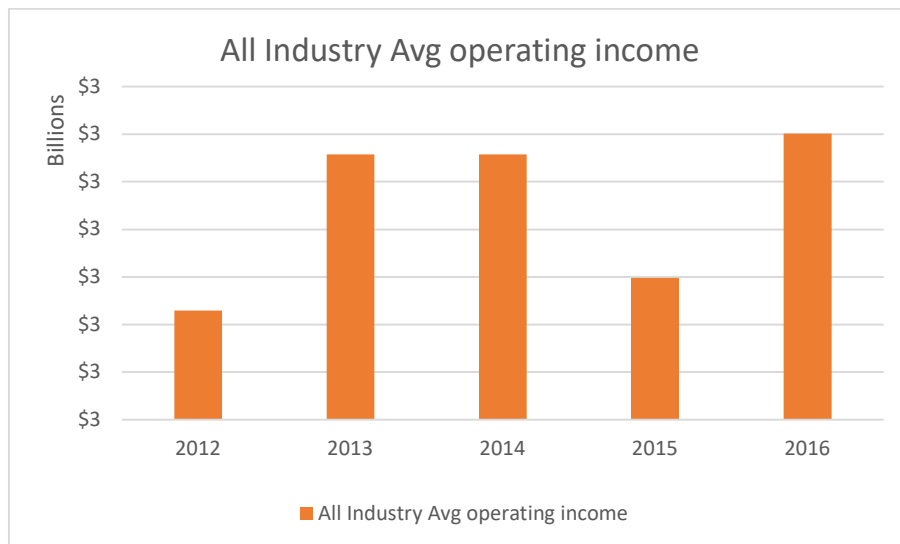

The respective line graph depicts that the mean total revenue generated by the real estate is much more than the all other industry.

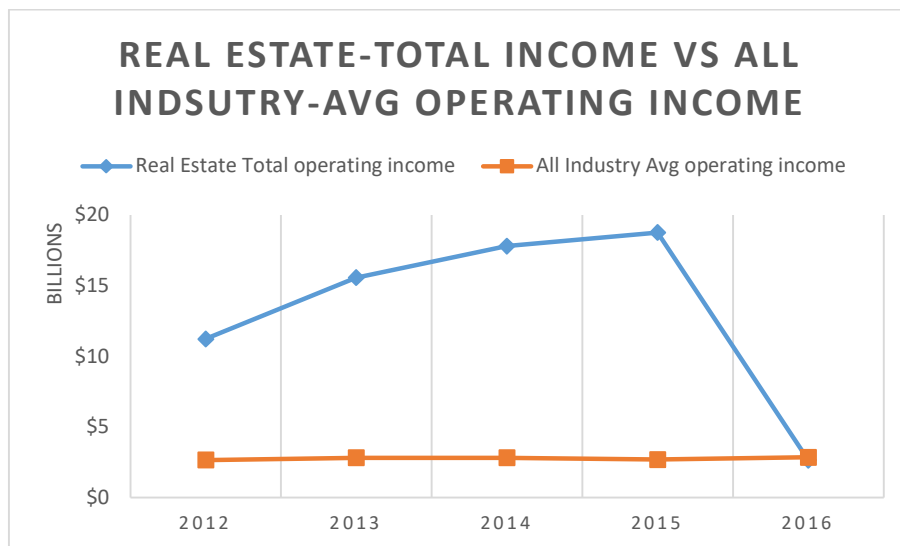

In duration between 2012 to 2016 real estate generated revenue of 52.24 billion dollars. On the hand other industry earned revenue about 20.92 billion dollars. Which indicates the real estate require huge revenue business model.

Q2. Does Real estate incur more operating profits because of the higher revenue?

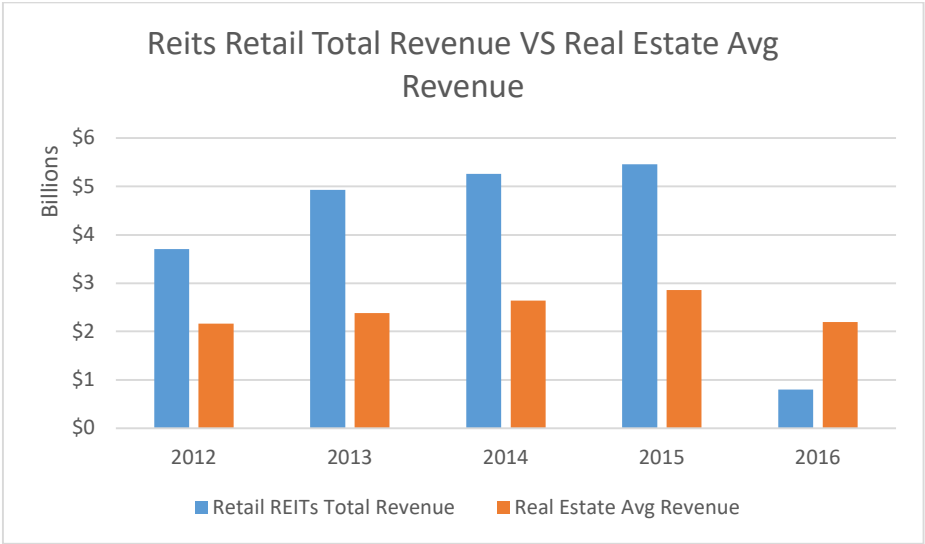

The above histograms indicate that real estate histogram is left skewed while rest of the compare are mixed. Also, real estate industry has higher standard deviation in range. This indicate increase in operating profits.

From the line graph, the real estate earns an avg operating income 13.21 billion dollar. On other hand other industries earned 2.77 billion dollars. But after 2015, the line graph shows the operating income decreased rapidly and the income settled with the other industries.

Q3. Does Reits Retails earn more profits compared to other real estate?

Reits Retail : 4.03 billions dollar

Real Estate : 2.44 billions dollar

From the histogram, it is clear that Reits Retails earn more profit than other real estate. This gives an advantage to the company for future growth.

Retail REITs Total Revenue(2012-2016)
Mean	4032571400.00
Median	4933114000.00
Standard Deviation	1929933125.25